

Killing a cyclist if found guilty of lack of responsibility while in charge of a motor vehicle requires more than a suspended sentence, a fine of a couple of thousand dollars and a licence temporarily suspended ... it requires jail.

It is manslaughter.